

Wave Points For Opener

This coming Saturday, September 18th, at Boyne City the new coaches of Grayling High School will make their debut. At this time new personnel along with a new offensive system will get its first test. Head Coach Joe Bogart along with his assistant, Coach Bruce Smith, are confident that the Green Wave will come through their first encounter on the open end of the score. As the practice sessions taper down in preparation for the first game it looks as if the forward wall will have to carry the brunt of both the offensive and defensive. The backfield is light and inexperienced with only two boys having had any great amount of participation.

In the backfield there isn't an outstanding player in which Coach Bogart can depend on to carry the offensive load. Jack Trudeau is being groomed to do the passing but needs more work than can be given in three short weeks of practice. He is also doing the kicking and here again he is only average. Bob Rasmussen has been placed up to be the spinning full back in the single wing formation being used. Bob is a shifty runner but needs work on being able to power over tacklers. Claude Parkinson is the most promising runner in the backfield. He is fast and should prove to be a threat on reverse plays.

Injuries have hurt the squad, especially in the backfield. Jack Richardson, a 180 pound quarter back, twisted his knee and will be out for at least two weeks. In his place will start Axel Peterson, a good blocker but does not have the size or weight that Richardson possesses. Another possible man for this position is Martin Kitchen but he has also been plagued with an injured tendon in the back of his heel, making it difficult to get any drive in his legs. The line has a few and far between so it looks

Line Up Indies Court Squad

A start has been made on lining up an independent basketball squad to be sponsored by a group of Grayling merchants. The court outfits are being ordered with a Grayling merchant sponsoring the suit and jacket.

Plans call for a number and the word "Grayling" to appear on the playing suit with each individual merchant's name appearing only on the jacket. Grayling merchants are going to sponsor the new court suits are: Hunter's Aulsebrook Dairy, Hanson's Cafe, Hanson's Sporting Goods, Baringer's Men's Wear, West's Lone Pine Inn, E. R. Burns Hardware, Mac's Drug Store, Dawson's, A. S. Burrows, John's Grocery, Aulsebrook Insurance Agency and the Crawford County Avalanche.

Another innovation this year will be that the squad will have a coach-in-willard "Butch" Cornell with Myrton Burrows acting as manager. Lost from last year's independents, the Keg O'Nails team, will be Ed and Carl Smith, who are going to school away from Grayling. New comers trying out for the team will be Grayling's new coaching staff, Bruce Smith and Joe Bogart as well as Gene Case and Ross Thompson, who is transferring from the Legion team. Another big asset will be Roger Giegling who will be with the team the full time this year as he has taken a job here.

Last year's team members who are expected to be on hand this year are: Ed Smith, Sandy Thompson and Pat Harwood. Manager Myrton Burrows said that practice sessions are planned early this year, getting underway as soon as practical. The team members are busy now trying to raise further financing. Prizes offered are a rifle on display at Dad Hanson's, a toaster at Dawson's.

Indies Lose To Shamrocks Again

The Roscommon Shamrocks again defeated Grayling last Sunday at Roscommon. Although each team collected 8 hits and Roscommon made 5 errors, Grayling's three, the Shamrocks outscored Grayling 8 to 7. The winning run was made in the last half of the ninth inning with two men out.

Bob Gidner was on the mound for Grayling and Emery did the hustling chore for the winners. Gidner struck out 7 while Emery whiffed 12. Ted Bennett hit safely 3 times in 4 trips to the plate. Owens and Kellogg were credited with doubles.

Grayling started off by scoring 4 runs in the initial inning and added another in the third to take a 5 to 0 lead. Roscommon came back in the last of the third with a run to make the count 5 to 1. Both teams went scoreless in the 4th and 5th canto with Roscommon breaking through with 3 runs in each of the 6th and 7th innings to go into the lead 7 to 5. In the first half of the ninth Grayling scored 2 runs to tie up the score and Roscommon pushed over the winning counter in their half of the final period.

The Annual League Banquet will take place this Saturday night at Warner's Lodge near Red Oaks on the AuSable River. The West Branch team, the first team to score a win over Grayling, is scheduled to appear here this Sunday afternoon. The game is scheduled for 2:30 P. M. at the City Park Field.

Crawford COUNTY

SIXTY-FIRST YEAR • NO. 37

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1948

Slash Canoe Record Time By Over An Hour

Woodruff, Prescott, Peltz Win County Primary Race

Vote Is Lightest In Many Years

A total vote of less than 300 was forecast for Crawford County as five precincts out of seven showed a total vote of only 205. South Branch and Lovells Township returns had not been tabulated on Wednesday morning. This vote is one of the lightest ever cast in the county in late years.

The Republican incumbents who were opposed had little difficulty in obtaining a majority in the county. Congressman Roy Woodruff opposed by two other candidates received a total vote of 116. His opponents, David Ballard and William Gaffney received 20 and 14 votes respectively. State Senator Charles Prescott received 80 votes to 51 cast for his opponent, Frank White of Marion.

State Representative Emil Peltz received 81 votes to 82 cast for Roscommon's President, Max Kelsey, who was opposing him. Burnett J. Abbott and G. Mennen Williams ran close in Crawford County for the Democratic nomination for Governor. Abbott received 24 votes, Williams 18. Victor E. Bucknell, the other candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor received a total of 8 votes. John W. Connolly took a 3 to 1 lead over Victor Targonski for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor as he totaled 33 votes to his opponents 10.

The vote on other candidates who were unopposed was as follows: Frank E. Hook, D. United States Senator 35; Senator Homer Ferguson, R. United States Senator, 139. Edward J. Dougherty, D. United States Representative, 32.

Crawford County gave Governor Kim Sigler the largest vote cast for a candidate with 155 ballots. Lieutenant Governor Eugene Keyes polled 129 votes. The unopposed County Officers were as follows: Robert Neafie, D. prosecutor, 42; James Post, D. treasurer, 45; William Gohlack, R. sheriff, 131; Leo E. Leoley, R. clerk, 140; Fred Niederer, R. register of deeds, 132.

As returns began to be tabulated over the districts, it appeared that State Senator Charles Prescott would be returned to office with about a 1,500 to 2,000 vote majority and United States Representative Roy Woodruff and State Representative Emil Peltz were virtually assured of re-election. On the Democratic side of the ticket, with the state returns far from complete, Candidate for Governor G. Mennen Williams and candidate for Lieutenant Governor John W. Connolly were running well ahead of their opponents.

Draft Calls 5 County Men

Crawford County has been called upon to furnish 5 men for the draft call during the month of October, Clarence Johnson, local board clerk announced today.

It was also pointed out by Draft Board Clerk Johnson that the draft would not be this Saturday, September 18. After that date all youths becoming 18 years of age, must, under the law, register within 5 days. The registration of these youths will take place at the County Treasurer's office in the County Building, Clerk Johnson stated. He explained that due to a small population there might be weeks when no one would register and therefore it was not thought feasible to keep a separate office open. County Treasurer James Post is a member of the Crawford County Draft Board.

The first group to be called under the new draft law will be with the 25-year-old age bracket and then according to date of birth. Col. Glenn B. Arnold, State Selective Service Director announced last week. With draft registrations just past the halfway mark, however, it was still uncertain who will be the next.

Most 25-year olds, Arnold said, were registered during World War II. Nearly 50 per cent of those were physically unfit. Approximately 35 to 45 per cent of that group are now in the armed forces. The induction center will also take into account physical standards, he added.

Occupational deferments are expected to cut the available manpower. Under the present law, only single, non-father, non-veteran males are eligible for the draft.

Arnold said he plans to send 2,500 men to induction stations for physical tests as early in October as possible. Once a pool of physical fits is established, he asserted the task of meeting future calls will be less demanding. Examination and induction points for Michigan draftees are: Dearborn, Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Flint, Traverse City, Escanaba and Hancock.

National Guard Day Proclaimed

President Truman and Governor Sigler have proclaimed September 16 as National Guard Day.

Those who are now serving their country in the National Guard, the nation's first line of defense.

In his proclamation the President declared that "the National Guard of the United States has been a faithful and unflinching servant of the people in struggles against foreign aggression and in times of domestic disaster." He further declared that "the cause of national security demands that the National Guard be fully manned, equipped and trained as a component part of the nation's security forces."

Marking the eighth anniversary of its order for induction into federal service for World War II, the National Guard will observe September 16 with appropriate community observances.

Governor Sigler declared in his proclamation, "The Michigan National Guard is once more an effective instrument for state and national security, just two years after its reorganization following World War II. With its manpower and equipment the greatest in history, the new Michigan National Guard is prepared to carry forward the high traditions of the past as it assumes its important role in the nation's first line of defense."

Commissioned officers, warrant officers and certain enlisted veterans may join the Michigan National Guard without regard to age.

County Teams Place 2nd, 5th, 6th and 8th

Hugh Bissonette, 20, and Bud Bissonette, 23, both of Oscoda reign as the Michigan Canoe Champs after slashing an hour and 5 minutes from last years record set by Allen Carr and Delbert Case. The two Oscoda brothers pushed their canoe under the middle bridge at Oscoda at exactly 10:58 Sunday morning to be greeted by music from the Oscoda High School Band and the combined cheers of the home folks and visitors.

Starting in first position, the brothers held the lead all the way and were never pushed too hard except during the early part of the race. Grayling teams grabbed second, fifth and eighth with a Lovells team of brothers placing sixth.

Jay Stephen of Grayling and his cousin, Ted Engle of Gaylord paddled their way from a starting spot of 30 up to take second place in 20 hours and 11 minutes. Just 13 minutes behind the victors, an Oscoda team, Robert Fullerton and Edward Dumont were third in 20 hours and 15 minutes with Charles Froman and John Snyder of Cadillac taking fourth in 20 hours and 23 minutes. The first four canoes all bettered last year's record. James Wakely and Bernard Fowler of Grayling swept over the finish line for fifth place in 21 hours and 5 minutes, just two minutes behind the old record. Robert and John Kellogg of Lovells placed sixth, Jerry Wagner and Joe Bissonette of Oscoda finished seventh and Jack and the champions, Allen Carr and Delbert Case of Grayling finished eighth with Louis Molnar and Albert LaBudda of Flat Rock, ninth, and Dean Harris and Edward Matthews of Clio tenth.

In all twenty-three canoes finished the 240-mile run down the length of the mighty AuSable river. Seventeen of the forty canoes that started dropped out of the race along the line.

The first official part of the second canoe race was a complimentary luncheon at the Michelson Memorial Church here for the racers. The luncheon was given by the Grayling Chamber of Commerce and served by the Junior Ladies Aid of the Church. The cancells were given instruction by Ray Snider, general chairman and Ernie Borchers, starting chairman. The boys had several questions which were answered by race officials and were then dismissed.

The gun sounded at 3 P. M. Although low water was encountered along the river at many points, the record was still broken by an hour. More knowledge of the river and currents, better physical condition and a split second handling of the portages were thought to be the reason for the faster time.

Medals and prize money were presented the first 10 teams by Ray Snider of Grayling, general race chairman. To the Bissonette brothers, the champions, went $800, a $175 Downsett canoe, medals, and the Thomas F. Marston Memorial trophy.

Samuel Ball of Bay City, president of the East Michigan Tourist Association, presented the Marston trophy to Hugh and Bud, eulogizing the late T. F. Marston, of Bay City, EMTA secretary for a long period of years, in whose memory the trophy was posted.

Winners of the race, three times, not necessarily consecutively, will retain permanent possession of the canoe race trophy. Other prizes included: Second place, $300; third place, $200; fourth, $100; fifth and sixth, $50 each; seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth, $25 each. The Dow Chemical Co., of Midland, also presented each team that finished the race with a pair of canoe paddles. The prize money was posted by Grayling, Tawas and Oscoda-AuSable Chambers of Commerce and Mio Sportsmen's club, canoe race sponsors.

Physicians examined the racers immediately after their arrival at Oscoda. Then came rubdowns, showers, and food.

As during the long race, conservation department staff, state police, and Consumers Power Co. dam employees co-operated, in reporting progress of the canoe teams to race headquarters at Oscoda.

FOOTBALL

as if freshmen Jerry Baker and Henry Feldhauser are the first in line. However, Tom Anthony reported for the first time this week and should be a welcome replacement.

As the forward wall goes so goes the Green Wave is the saying coming out of City Park. The line carries a lot of weight and size, so it is only hoped that they will use it to advantage. From various comments made by the coaches the line is slow and sluggish at times, but we are sure by the first game Coach Smith will have the line charging fast. At present Carl Hanson and Terry Nelson are holding down the end positions. Both are fair pass catchers, with Hanson being a bit more aggressive on defense.

John Krage and Jim Feldhauser will start at the tackle spots. They are big and rugged but they are a little extra drive from each, the opponents will have a tough time running over them. At the guard positions it looks like Bob Lozan and Victor Papendick. They will try to keep the center of the line intact and should do a good job here with the experience they received last year. At center is Bill "Speedy" Worden the fastest man on the squad. The coaches have made many praising remarks about Bill and it is only hoped that he will live up to their expectations.

The main replacements will be Ernie Miller and Bob Sunday and Jim Kitchen and Elery Horning at the guard spots. During the past week both Jim Kitchen and Elery Horning suffered minor injuries but they are expected to be ready and in excellent shape for the first game.

If injuries do not plague the team and the backs can become a little more rugged with the line moving fast like it should, the Grayling team should give the new coaches a fine reception. However, the "ifs" have it at the present time so we can only sit back and wait for the first game this Saturday at Boyne City.

MIGRAINE—MALADY OF THE EMOTIONS
Scientists deliberately suppressed or unconscious feeling of anger is a basic cause of migraine headaches. How science is straightening out these mental twists to bring relief to migraine sufferers is described in "Migraine—Malady of Emotions," in The American Weekly, great magazine with this Sunday's (Sept. 19) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.

Letters To The Editor

Sept. 6, 1948.

Mr. Robert Strong, Editor, Crawford Avalanche, Grayling, Michigan.

Dear Sir: On behalf of Roy Millikin, director and Mrs. Bertha Millikin, treasurer of the Beaver Creek School District No. 4, I would like to have this letter published in your paper.

To my knowledge the records of the Beaver Creek No. 4 District have been correctly kept and are open at any time to proper investigation. The No. 4 District operates under a heavy financial handicap. In June of 1947 their balance was $10. On June 30, 1948 they showed an operative loss of $27.01.

A few years ago the district was debt ridden and could not pay its teacher. Careful planning by the District Board enabled them to retire the debt and to maintain an educational program for their children.

Population of the district has increased the school enrollment in this area to such an extent that a shifting of students is necessary in order to utilize every possible school room and still keep within financial bounds.

The State and County Educational Offices have seen this coming for some time. Many attempts have been made in the past five years to break down the day that is now here. Little was accomplished toward breaking down school district line barriers.

It became apparent to me shortly after I was re-elected to the office of County School Commissioner at the last election that there was considerable feeling in some of the smaller districts that, because of my position in the Grayling schools, I was arranging things for the benefit of the Grayling schools. Such is far from the case, and because I could not honestly do justice to the Grayling No. 1 District as well as to the primary districts, I notified the County Board of Supervisors last June that as soon as I could complete the Annual Report to the State Department I wished to resign the Commission effective Sept. 1, 1948.

In my opinion the 1947-48 Beaver Creek No. 4 Board followed the best course possible. A shifting of pupils usually causes considerable feeling and a district cannot wait until a few days before school opens to provide an educational program for its children.

The transporting of the Beaver Creek No. 1 pupils to Frederic is not desirable. This was and is recognized, not because of the Frederic school, but because of the distance involved. However, it appears to be the best plan for this year and if any of the qualified electors of the Beaver Creek No. 4 School District can find a better way they should take office and go to work.

Sincerely yours, Frank Bond, Former Crawford Co., School Commissioner.

September 8, 1948. Mr. Roy Millikin, R. F. D. 1, Roscommon, Michigan. Dear Mr. Millikin: I understand your board of education began transporting pupils to Grayling and Frederic yesterday. In view of the fact that there is no room for elementary pupils at Grayling or Roscommon, there is no other plan except to continue your present transportation program.

The township board is not compelled legally to place the town ship hall at your service.

No existing building or a part of a building which has not been heretofore used for school purposes shall be so used until its use shall have been approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Fire Marshall.

I understand your present school building is in no condition to reopen, an even if you plan to reopen it there is of course a question of finances.

I see no other way than to furnish transportation to Grayling and Frederic for this year. Perhaps by another fall it might be possible to reopen school in your own district providing you can secure the funds.

The distance from your district even after you pick up pupils to Frederic is no greater than several hundred other school bus routes in the state. The road from Grayling to Frederic is generally open as it is a main trunk line. Therefore, under conditions as your board has had to meet, I see no other way than to offer transportation facilities for the pupils of your district.

If you can speed up the transportation program within your own district by having pupils be at the road ready to board the bus considerable time can be gained. I am enclosing general suggestions and recommendations for boards of education and bus drivers, and wish particularly to point out the fact that pupils must be ready and not hold up the bus.

I shall be glad to visit your community at my first opportunity and discuss the matter with you or any other who are interested. Incidentally, I have made no statement regarding time or place regarding a visit to your area, but will be glad to drive out if I can be of any service. I am sure the parents and pupils will be satisfied with the services they will receive at Frederic. At least the program should be given a fair trial.

Yours sincerely, Dorr Stack, School Organization and Transportation.

Beaver Creek School Affair

The charges, counter-charges, explanations and quoted school laws have been flying around thick and fast down in Beaver Creek School District No. 4 the past few weeks.

Not being acquainted with the laws governing school boards or of the rules that govern the meetings and actions of a group of school district electors, we can not take a stand on the issue. However, we are acquainted with men on each side of the dispute and consequently have more or less heard both sides of the affair.

Apparently the majority of the folks in the school district want their own school opened if it is impossible for the Grayling schools to accept them. The Grayling School Board early this year passed a resolution to not accept out of district students as the schools were extremely crowded with students from within the Grayling District.

Of course, obviously, the answer to all of the problems is a good, old-fashioned meeting down in the district with everyone represented that has any interest in the affair, plus the top boys from the State Department of Public Instruction.

The Avalanche has been happy to carry all of the open letters and minutes of meetings from both sides. It is only through an open airing of such a case that the facts will be uncovered and an answer agreeable to all reached.

However, one sentence in one of the letters submitted rubbed our fur the wrong way. We quote, "We regret that damaging statements against Mr. Millikin appeared in the Avalanche and take this means to state our side of the affair."

The freedom of the press to report any happenings which it believes to be news is held as yet inviolate. That freedom of reporting protects everyone because it does not seek to make anyone believe anything. It only reports what happened. It leaves any decisions to be reached in the reader's own mind and conscience.

Very often you hear, "Our newspaper said this or that." Except in an editorial column, you will rarely find any newspaper saying anything. A newspaper's function is to report what happened, what was said or what was decided. Remember, the newspaper didn't say so, the newspaper reports that a certain group or person said so.

Who is right or wrong in Beaver Creek School District No. 4, we can't frankly say. We do know, however, that it is the school children who are paying for the trouble through missed days of school.

A quick settlement of the affair seems to be in order. Our receipt: Get the folks together, add a pinch of American horse sense and let it come to a boil. Result; another problem solved by democratic processes. R.W.S.

Squirrels are plenty smart

Throughout the summer and fall squirrels are mighty busy. These provident animals obtain and store ample stocks of winter food. Then when winter comes they are ready for it.

Providential householders also prepare for winter during warm months by filling their fuel oil tanks from our presently ample stocks. This in turn, permits bulk stations to maintain a full supply of oil for distribution later.

To insure oil heat all winter it is necessary to keep a balance between the oil supply and the season's demand—therefore it is vital that your tanks and ours be kept full at all times.

SHORT STORY

A Quiet Evening

By Lillace
Montgomery Mitchell

JOE went into the elevator of Sallie's apartment building, settling his coat on his shoulders with a satisfied smile. After all, one might as well live in style! Sallie probably paid no more for her room in this building than Rita did in that walk-up flat where she had roomed for three years.

"Rita is a good sort," he told himself with a note of apology even in the thought, "but Sallie—say, there's a girl with dash to her!"

Sallie had rushed in with a wrap over her arm:

"Oh, Joe, I'm so glad you happened in. They're throwing a dance over at Kitty's and—"

"But, say, after the way I've worked all day, Sallie, I absolutely can't dance all night! I—I just thought we'd have a quiet evening and—talk—"

He did not go on to say that he had wanted to talk over serious problems with her such as the burning question as to whether two could live as cheaply as one.

"A quiet evening?" she repeated. "Who in heaven's name wants a quiet evening?"

Her piquant little face upturned to his, Joe allowed himself to be hurried from the room and down in the elevator.

"How far is it to this—Kitty's?" Was that the name of the girl?" asked Joe.

Sallie nodded. "You met her a month ago—the same night you met me, Joe. Don't you remember her—a girl with red hair—no wave at all and long green earrings?"

"I'm not going," said Joe, stubbornly.

Sallie looked up at him, her foot on the running-board of the taxi. "Oh—yes, you are," she said. "Yes—you are, Joe Marshall!"

"What's the address?" Joe asked quietly.

He repeated it to the cab driver. "How much—about?" asked Joe.

"'Bout four-sixty," answered the man.

Joe handed him a five-dollar bill. "Keep the change," he said, closing the door.

He turned down the street in Rita's direction mechanically. Five dollars! His lunch money for days gone. He shrugged; after all, a fellow could not expect to take out a girl like Sallie without spending. He had thought that he would visit with her all evening as he had done so often at Rita's but this girl—strictly modern, he told himself. He had thought to buy a box of candy for her and this was yet in his pocket. It was a fancier box than he had ever taken Rita, he thought.

Rita herself opened the door. "Hello," she said, warmly. "I wasn't expecting you, Joe. No—come back here to the dining room. Mrs. Matson had to go to the den."

From the sense and wisdom behind Rita's eyes, he might even learn goodness, too.

list's and I'm taking care of the youngsters. Mary is at her home-work."

"Maybe Mary'd like some of this candy I brought," said Joe. "And I was wondering, Rita, about—that that furniture we were talking about—"

"Are you proposing to her?" demanded Mary.

Now it was Joe's turn to flush. The kid needed a spanking. But he managed to get out with, "Any objections?"

I was hoping that Rita'd marry a good-looking man," retorted this surprising youngster.

Joe stared at Mary. Then, faintly, he began to see the humor of the situation. He looked directly into Rita's eyes. In them, he thought, he might be good-looking. And from the sense and wisdom behind Rita's eyes, he might even learn goodness, too.

"Yes," he said to the youngster, directly answering her question, "yes, I am proposing."

Our Policy on PONTIAC Deliveries and Prices

Despite the fact that Pontiac has built over a half-million cars since the resumption of production after the war, demand still exceeds supply. In the face of this production record, those who place orders now will still experience some delay in delivery. If you are among the many people who feel that Pontiac represents an outstanding value—and wish to order a Pontiac for future delivery—you will be interested in the following policy on retail distribution which we, as Pontiac dealers, will observe:

ORDERS FILLED BY PRIORITY

A definite proportion of the cars we receive from the factory is set aside for preferential delivery to users whose work is in the public welfare and to others with certain occupational requirements. Otherwise, all orders will be filled on the basis of the time when they are received.

YOU SPECIFY ACCESSORIES

While most of our customers order their cars equipped with accessories, we do not force accessories as a condition of sale. You specify what accessories you want when ordering your car, and these are the ones (and the only ones) it will carry when delivered. Some items may be lacking due to current shortages; but none will be added.

REGARDING TRADE-INS

Naturally, if you have a car to trade, we would like to have it in order to take care of our regular used car customers. Our appraisals are fair, based on current conditions. But if you do not have a car to turn in, we still want your order and will accept it for delivery based on the conditions outlined above.

WE WANT YOUR ORDER

And the sooner you place it, the sooner you will get delivery. So if you want a Pontiac, order it now.

WE WILL ESTIMATE DELIVERY DATE

Due to conditions beyond our control, we cannot give you an exact date of delivery. But based on anticipated future shipments from the factory, we will, when you place your order, give you an honest estimate of when you may expect your car. Such estimates will be reviewed any time on request.

YOU PAY FACTORY-SUGGESTED PRICE

Due to changing economic conditions, we cannot, when you place your order, tell you exactly how much the car will cost when delivered in the future. But, at the time of delivery you will be charged only the factory-suggested price on your model—which will be shown in a published list of local prices.

Since this is our "home town", our business and its future is based on our good relations with the people of this community. We are most happy that so many people here—as all over the country—have made Pontiac their number one choice as a new car.

Nothing pleases us more than to turn over the keys of a new Pontiac to one of the many people whose orders we have, because we know they have chosen well—for Pontiac is always a thoroughly good car, and a thoroughly good value, this year, next year, any year.

This is Our Policy...on

✓ DELIVERIES, ✓ PRICES, ✓ TRADE-INS
✓ FINANCING, ✓ ACCESSORIES

OUR 5-POINT PLEDGE TO THE PUBLIC

DELIVERIES—We will deliver all new Oldsmobiles at the earliest possible date consistent with production.

PRICES—We will charge no more than the delivered prices suggested by the Oldsmobile Division of General Motors. The buyer will receive an itemized bill of sale.

TRADE-INS—We will take your order and deliver your car without requiring a trade-in. However, we have many valued used car customers we would like to supply and we will give you a fair and reasonable allowance on your present car.

FINANCING—You may pay cash for your new Oldsmobile or finance it whenever you wish. We will be glad to furnish low cost finance and insurance terms if you so desire.

ACCESSORIES—All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered, and prices are figured to cover these. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" except those each customer orders.

When a manufacturer produces a car so obviously ahead of the times as the Futuramic Oldsmobile, it's only natural that demand for that product should break all records. Add to this today's pent-up need for automobiles—plus continuing shortages of steel and other critical materials—and you'll see why we have a real problem on our hands. We value the good will of all our customers. We would like to provide all our customers with new Oldsmobile cars. But unfortunately, this can't be done overnight. That is why we are taking this opportunity to reaffirm publicly our POLICIES ON PRICES AND DELIVERIES. We believe that under present circumstances these policies constitute a sound basis for "fair play" to everybody. And we hope that, on this basis, we may continue to serve you.
